Sara's Summer Reading Suggestions

Whether you're heading to the beach or just hanging out on your patio this summer, I've got some summer reading suggestions for you!

As much as I love reading paperbacks and hardcovers, I don't love it when my books get wet and/or sandy. Which is why I love my Kindle!

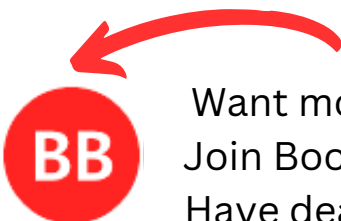

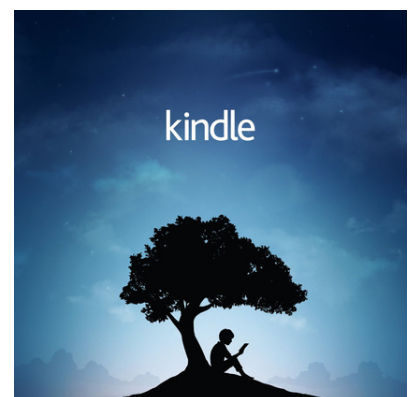

Before I go anywhere, I make sure I have my Kindle loaded with titles, so I'm never without something to read, whether camping, sitting by the fire, or just cuddled up on the couch.

Need a Kindle device?

Amazon has one that's best for the beach--

it's waterproof!

Defender of the Pack - Heather G. Harris

Have you read Heather's wolf series?

I can hardly wait to sink my teeth into this one! And it's a great deal at $1.99!

Did you know I wrote an action-packed romance?

Magic Claims - Ilona Andrews

I devoured this in a day! For me, Andrews is the gold star of urban fantasy and I aspire to make my stories as good as theirs.

Spending time with Kate and Curran is always a good time!

No Other Love - Lori Jean Rowsell

Is there anything more romantic than literally giving your heart to the one you love?

Don't miss the magical romantic twist to the happily ever after for these teens!

Fiendish Fury - Margo Bond Collins

Margo's urban fantasy 'Accidental Bounty Hunter' series is one I cannot put down!
If you're looking for a world to fall into, this is it!

don't miss the Midlife Monster series!

A Bounty with Strings - Markus Matthews

If you love paranormal bounty hunters, here's another series you'll love!

get the whole series!

American Demon - Kim Harrison

I'm so glad Kim Harrison back to writing about The Hollows!

Are you all caught up with Rachel & company?
It's my mission this summer to see what she's up to.

The Druid's Call - E. K. Johnston

Did you see the D&D movie? I absolutely adored it! I've also been a huge Johnston fan since The Story of Owen was published, so this was an automatic buy for me when it went up for pre-order! And it did not disappoint!
